

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

- _____
- There are nine (9) characteristics of the Fruit of the Spirit.
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
- In the earth realm, fruit is _____ when a tree and its roots are healthy; healthy plants/trees automatically produce fruit.
- _____ produce the Fruit of the Spirit _____.
 _____ . "Fruit is always created miraculously; it is the result of
 _____ ; _____ " –
 Dietrich Bonhoffer.
- The key to the manifestation of the Fruit of the Spirit in our lives is _____ _____ to the Holy Spirit. The Fruit of the Spirit can only be _____. Therefore, we must _____;

our part is to _____; His part is to _____.

- _____
- We see factories for making clothes, cars, and computers, but we don't see fruit factories. Fruit is grown from a plant, vine, or tree. There is _____.
- There is often common _____ regarding Galatians 5:22-23. Many of us tend to understand the list of nine (9) characteristics as _____ that the Holy Spirit will grow within our lives.
- The Apostle Paul uses the Greek word _____ for fruit– it is singular and not plural. The take away is Paul is talking about fruit, _____, not many fruits or different kinds of fruit.
- Paul is not naming different kinds of fruit the Spirit gives, but is describing the _____ of grace that the _____.
- If we see the nine (9) characteristics as different fruits, we become susceptible to believing _____ that says its _____ of the nine (9) traits evident in our lives.
- Paul is saying, if the _____, then these should be evidence through the “Fruit” of the spirit. Not a few of the characteristics, _____.

I. GRACE TO GROW

- When the evidence of fruit in our lives is incomplete, that means there are _____ that _____ to the Holy Spirit.

- Thank God for _____! Notice the following traits about fruit:
 - _____
 - _____
 - None of us perfectly display the Fruit of the Spirit. However, there _____.
 - _____
 - The Fruit of the Spirit _____. When we focus on _____ and tapping into the _____, He will bear fruit in and through us.