

FAITHFUL STEWARDSHIP

- What is a steward? It is the Greek work OIKO-NO- MOS and speaks of one who _____ the affairs of another.
- Christian stewardship refers to the _____ that Christians have in _____ the gifts that God has given.

Inclusive of:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

- The fundamental principle of Biblical stewardship is understanding the fact that God owns everything and that we are simply managers or administrators _____.
- Although God gives us “All things richly to enjoy,” _____.
Nothing really belongs to us - _____! Therefore, we are responsible for _____ and _____.
- Faithful stewards adopt and develop the following habits:

I. SEEK GOD FIRST

- Of all the good habits a Christian could have, seeking God first is the most important of them all.
- Seeking God first means _____ that foster our _____ on God. Actions like-

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- Jesus is our greatest example of seeking the Lord First _ He _____ _____ in everything.
 - _____
 - Jesus _____ with His Father and it was evidenced by His habitual _____.
 - There are _____ scriptural references of Jesus praying to the Father.

II. MAINTAIN A HEALTHY MIND, BODY, AND SOUL

- When analyzing the earthly ministry of Jesus, one can readily see that Christ worked tirelessly _____ - spiritually, mentally, and physically.
- Jesus' _____ the spiritual, mental, and physical challenges of His constituency. This is proof that God wants us to _____ until the end comes.
- The faithful steward develops habits that promote a _____:
 - We must _____ that lifts us up!
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____

- We must develop good health habits, such as _____
_____.

 - _____
 - _____
 - _____

- We must give attention to the _____. Focusing on things that _____!

 - Surround yourself with those who _____ unconditionally.
 - _____
 - _____